New Suit of Clothes.

They Defeat the Petersburgs by a Score of Nine to Eight.

PETERSBURG, VA, June 8.—Special—
The game this afternoon between the Lynchburgs and the home team resulted in a victory for the visitors by a score of 9 to 8. Alloway was in the box for the home team, and did very well, until the eighth inning, when he weakened, and the visitors hit him all over the field, making five runs, and winning the game.

McKenna pitched for the visitors, and was hit hard. The home team had a lead of 8 to 4 up to the eighth inning, and every one thought it was clinch to win, but luck favored the visitors.

Keefer caught a good game for the home team, and made a two-hopper with three men on bases, scoring all three. Turner, Sanford, Foster and McIntyre made home runs.

THE GLAD IN BELLIES AGAIN.

At last! Poor Ruth!—A Fine Fight Averted.

The other game.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The police narrowly avoided a fire fight between the New York and Pittsburgh players in the fifth inning. As Wilson scored on Kilmer's hit at the plate, the latter dashed to the knob of his bat and the crowd and the players of both teams rushed together and were squaring off when the police interfered. Murray had to be escorted to his dressing room by the police officers, the game being suspended until 10 o'clock. The New Yorks were too tired to hit him, and Hartney was substituted for him. At 10 o'clock the game was resumed.

The following is a detailed description

THE STADIUMS WIN.

The Sunbeams defeated the Chestnut

Hills in a game of ball on the Richmond

Valley Grounds yesterday afternoon by a score of 16 to 10. The batteries were

Tracy and Hill for the Sunbeams, and Todd, Irby, and Todd for the Chestnut Hills.

THEY FORGIVE THE GAME.

The Sunbeams refuse to continue after the eighth inning.

NORFOLK. NORFOLK, Va., June 8.—Special—

Norfolk won the last of the series of games from Roanoke this afternoon by its superior playing at the bat and in the field. In the ninth inning, Roanoke taking offense on account of a decision of the umpire, refused to continue and the game was forfeited. As seen by the score, Roanoke was defeated, and very superior work would have been necessary to change the result.

The game was hotly contested, and so well did the teams play together, that there was little room for special features.
